January Tennis News

As January unfolds, the tennis courts of The Club Continental buzz with activity, embracing the cool breezes and warm sun. Our tennis enthusiasts gather to kick off the new year with renewed energy and determination. The vibrant atmosphere is not just a result of the weather but also a testament to the passion for the sport that our athletes carry onto the courts. The proper training serves up success. We're here to help and offer a variety of drop-in clinics, as well as private and group lessons all week long.

Meet our Junior Tennis Athlete of the Month, Lola Piotrowski, a rising star on and off the court. With a relentless work ethic, this young talent has been leaving spectators in awe with her dedication to improvement. Not only a powerhouse on the court, but also a commendable listener, absorbing insights from coaches and peers alike. Lola's commitment and receptiveness makes her a standout presence in the world of junior tennis, promising a bright future in the sport. Keep up the hard work!
