May Tennis News

Athlete of the Month: Congratulations to Paul Goodier for being selected as our May Athlete of the Month! Paul's dedication and sportsmanship on the court make him a true inspiration to us all. Thank you, Paul, for your contribution to our tennis community! Don't miss out on Mixed Doubles round-robin play every Thursday on courts 4 & 5. Join Paul and fellow members for an exciting session of friendly competition and camaraderie.

Shot of the Month: This month, we celebrate the serve – the cornerstone of every tennis match. Whether it's a powerful ace or a well-placed ball, the serve sets the tone for the entire game. Take some time to perfect your serve and watch your game reach new heights! Stay tuned to our social media for clinics, camps, updates and events at The Club Continental. See you on the courts. Keep swinging!

What an amazing turnout for The Club's Easter Brunch. We had almost 400 people for our brunch. The Easter Bunny visited with all the tables and our Easter Egg Hunt had beautiful weather and a great turn out of children.

The winners for the most eggs in each age group were:

Luna with 26 eggs and Bricen with 24 eggs in our 6 and under category
Camden with 40 eggs and Sydney with 25 eggs in our 7 and up category

We had one golden egg winner in each category, who each won $20:

6 and under category was Cameron Petty

7 and Older category was Max Arrowsmith

Our Jelly Bean Winner was Brittany Arrowsmith with a guess of 576. The actual number of jelly beans was 615.

Congratulations to all of this year's winners!
