MEMORIAL DAY UPDATE

Over 100 members and guests celebrated Memorial Day at the Cabana. The food was delicious and the beverages from the bar were refreshing. The guests enjoyed listening to a wide variety of guitar music by John Waters while the kids had a blast on the waterslide. There were close to 20 kids who participated in the pool games. In the younger kids category Tillman Toth swam away with 3 first place wins followed by Maya Chaishowarat with 3 overall wins. Edwin Benefield also earned 2 ribbons. In the older kids category almost everyone won atleast 1 ribbon with Sydney Arrowsmith, Mera Scofield and Max Arrowsmith earning 2 ribbons. Unfortunately, thunder prevented everyone's favorite game Watermelon Rumble. Please come out on Independence day and we will try it again. Thank you to all who participated in the games.

Great job by everyone!

JULY TENNIS NEWS - COURT REPORT

Summer tennis is in full swing, and the energy on the courts has never been better! From exciting camps and clinics to friendly matches and new opportunities to play, there's plenty happening at Club Continental Tennis. As we enjoy the peak of the summer season, we're also building excitement for the upcoming league season and encouraging players to get involved now so they're ready for all the fun ahead.

AUGUST TENNIS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Know someone who has been thinking about joining Club Continental Tennis? August will be the perfect time to make the move, as we will be offering a special Tennis Membership promotion for new members.

LOOKING AHEAD

THE UPCOMING SEASON

Our Ladies Working Women's Teams are currently looking for new players for the upcoming season. This league is ideal for women who work during the week, with matches typically played on Saturday afternoons. Whether you're new to tennis or returning after time away, this is a fun and welcoming way to improve your game, stay active, and meet new friends.

League play includes both home matches at Club Continental and competition at clubs throughout the area. No previous league experience is necessary—we'll help you learn everything you need to know.

MEN'S PLAY

Men's afternoon tennis continues to be a hit, with Men's Round Robin play running throughout the week. It's a great opportunity to meet other members, enjoy some friendly competition, and stay active on the courts.

Stop by the pro shop or call to inquire about current programs, lessons or gear.
